SPOTLIGHTING

The Reserve Directors

CDR Williams was born in Richmond, Virginia, and with the exception of his service time has remained a resident of Virginia. He attended high school in Richmond and Clifton Forge, and was graduated from the Virginia Military Institute with the Bachelor of Arts degree.

He first came on active duty in the Coast Guard in June 1942, when he was commissioned a LT (JG). Prior to that time he had service in the Virginia National Guard, the U. S. Army, the U. S. Marine Corps, in both the regular and reserve components, and in the Virginia State Police. His first assignment in the Coast Guard was in the Port Security Battalion, Norfolk.

In December of the same year he was transferred to the U. S. S. JOSEPH T. DICKMAN (APA 13). He served aboard this attack transport for over three years, as Senior Watch Officer, Division Officer and Beach Party Officer. During this time he participated in five amphibious landings--Sicily, Salerno, Normandy and Southern France in the European area, and Okinawa in the Pacific.

In July 1945 he was assigned to the Receiving Station, Norfolk, where he served as Executive Officer until his release to inactive duty in September 1945. From then until his recall to active duty in August 1950, he served as Superintendent of the Norfolk County Police Department in Norfolk, Virginia.

CDR F. Perry, Williams, USCGR
Seventeenth District

CDR Williams returned to active duty in the Office of Personnel at Coast Guard Headquarters, where he remained until transferred to New Orleans as Assistant Director of the Reserve. In April 1954 he went to the Thirteenth District, again as Assistant Director of Reserve, and in June 1957 was transferred to his present assignment as Personnel Officer in the Seventeenth, with collateral duty as Director of Reserve.

CDR Williams holds the European African Middle Eastern Medal with 4 stars, the Asiatic Pacific Medal with 1 star, the American Theatre Medal and the Reserve Service Medal with Clasp.

Reserve Officer Cited for Outstanding Contribution

CDR Allan H. Sampson, USCGR, who recently completed the Senior Reserve Officers' Course at the Naval War College, Newport, R. I., received special commendation in a letter from Vice Admiral S. H. Ingersoll, USN, President of the Naval War College. In a letter to the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Admiral Ingersoll remarked that "The Coast Guard Reserve Officer you provided us was exceptionally well qualified and contributed materially to the success of the course and the discussions. CDR A. H. Sampson pulled a mighty oar."

GI Benefits Listed

A revised edition of the Veterans Administration pamphlet, "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents" is now on sale at the U. S. Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C., for 15 cents a copy.

The booklet, also called VA Fact Sheet Is-1, for easy identification, has been prepared by the VA to explain the nature of all major U. S. veterans' benefits.

Notify Your Commander of Change of Address

Whenever you move or change your mailing address, you are required to notify the holder of your official Coast Guard records of your new address.
